of information:

New York City Housing Authority
90 Church Street, 5th Floor
New York, NY 10001

Authority: Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by Section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 and Section 3003 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544. This law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing: (1) HUD, and NYCHA to request verification of salary and wages from current or previous employers; (2) HUD and NYCHA to request wage and unemployment compensation claim information from the state agency responsible for keeping that information; and (3) HUD to request certain tax return information from the U.S. Social Security Administration and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. HUD regulations (24 CFR 5.210 et. seq.; 24 CFR 5.659; and 24 CFR 960.259) authorize NYCHA to collect other information necessary to determine eligibility for assistance or level of benefits.

Section 104 of the Housing Opportunity and Modernization Act of 2016. The relevant provisions are found at 42 U.S.C. 1437n. This law requires you to sign a consent form authorizing NYCHA to request verification of any financial record from any financial institutions as defined in the Right to Financial Privacy Act (12 U.S.C. 3401)), whenever NYCHA determines the record is needed to determine a Section 9/public housing or Section 8/Housing Choice Voucher applicant's or participant's eligibility for assistance or level of benefits.

Purpose: In signing this consent form, you are authorizing HUD and NYCHA to request income information from the sources listed on the form. HUD and NYCHA need this information to verify your household's income, family composition and related information for every household member, in order to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct level. HUD and NYCHA may participate in computer matching programs with these sources in order to verify your eligibility and level of benefits.

Uses of Information to be Obtained: HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. HUD may disclose information (other than tax return information) for certain routine uses, such as to other government agencies for law enforcement purposes, and to Housing Agencies for the purpose of determining housing assistance. NYCHA is also required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with any applicable State privacy law. HUD and NYCHA employees may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of the income information that is obtained based on the consent form. Private owners may not request or receive information authorized by this form.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form: Each member of your family who is 18 years of age or older must sign the consent form. Additional signatures must be obtained from new adult members joining the family or whenever members of the family become 18 years of age.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs are required to sign this consent form:

Public Housing

Housing Choice Voucher

Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation

Failure to Sign Consent Form: Your failure to sign the consent form may result in the denial of eligibility or termination of assisted housing benefits, or both. Denial of eligibility or termination of benefits is subject to NYCHA's grievance procedures and Section 8 informal hearing procedures.

Revocation of consent: If you revoke consent, NYCHA will be unable to verify your information, although the data matches between HUD and other agencies will continue to automatically occur in the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System if the family is not terminated from the program.
